

Tyler Jackson is the founder/publisher of Manhattan City Lifestyle Magazine. Born and raised in Dodge City, Kansas, he moved to Manhattan in 2006. Always wanting to work in radio, he took a job with Hot Country B104.7, starting with the overnight shift in 2008, and ending with hosting the morning show, Tyler & Megan, from 2011-2017! He then had a four-year stint where he helped produce the TV ratings for Nielsen TV ratings for five Midwestern states, and since February 2022, is the Founding Publisher & Editor-in-Chief of Manhattan City Lifestyle magazine! It's a hyper-local, luxury magazine, based on all things Manhattan! He's also the emcee voice of many events, including Manhattan Running Company's foot races, and announcer for several gravel bike races from Texas to Nebraska. Tyler enjoys mountain biking, kayaking, playing the drums and raising his wild 80-pound Olde English Bulldog named Happy! Find out more info on Manhattan City Lifestyle magazine at citylifestyle.com/manhattan